There is not much interest yet manifested in the city elections except on the part of those likely to be candidates and they are apparently not losing any sleep on account of the approaching contest.

The 32nd birthday of Mrs. Chris Ahues was honored Thursday evening by a most delightful party, whist, dancing and refreshments were the program, and all thanked their hosts for a pleasant evening.

At the Baptist church there will be all the usual services tomorrow. At 2:30 p. m. Monday two noted preachers of the Christian Alliance will begin a two-days meeting in this church. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

Presbyterian church services as usual tomorrow. Theme of the morning sermon, "Perfect Peace"; evening theme, "Some Thoughts About Death." There will be special music by the choir. A very cordial invitation is extended to all.

If there is any prospect for a clear sky on the night of the fourteenth there will be several "meteor" parties in Astoria. The world will get into the path of a disintegrated comet and the atmosphere will come a brilliant display. This event will be regarded as a social opportunity.

The Astoria Pochantas ladies successfully entertained their brothers, the Red Men, last night. A cake walk was one of the features. "Corky" Hanson and Miss Mary McCullough won the prize. In "bean-bag" throwing, a beautiful badge was won by Miss Lizette Lazelle. Light refreshments were served.

Services at the Swedish Lutheran church tomorrow as follows: Swedish services at 10:30 a. m., Sunday school at 12:15. Reformation services in Swedish at 7:45 p. m., topic "Luther as a Preacher of the Gospel." Extra session of the congregation at 3 p. m. for the purpose of calling a pastor, the present pastor having resigned a week ago.

All Astorians who visit Portland and desire spending a pleasant evening in company with polite people and in the enjoyment of an unexcelled musical program, should go to the Fredericksburg. Besides vocal and instrumental selections there are many other attractions to delight the visitors. The new management is making the Fredericksburg a well-merited success.

Miss Signe Palmberg, recently arriving from the East, desires to announce to the ladies of Astoria that she has opened dressmaking parlors on Ninth street, near Commercial, next door to Dellinger's printing office. Miss Palmberg has had thorough experience in cutting and fitting ladies' garments of all kinds, particularly tailor-made suits and cloaks of the latest and most fashionable designs.

Owing to the very inclement weather and counter attractions the temperance lecture last night at the Presbyterian church was not as well attended as the ladies of the W. C. T. U. would have liked, but the address by Mrs. Bailey was excellent and those who attended felt more than repaid for having done so. Mrs. Bailey leaves for her home in New York, but will remain in Portland awhile before proceeding with her journey.

There will doubtless be a large attendance at the foot-ball game this afternoon, the first game of college foot-ball ever played here except exhibition contests between local teams. Foot-ball is interesting—intensely so and is a sport that might have been made especially for Astoria fall weather. It may rain "cats and dogs" but men and women will put on their overcoats and rubber coats and tramp in crowds to the gridiron to watch the long-haired players struggle for supremacy, and they never catch cold.

Subjects at the Methodist Episcopal church Lord's Day—"The plowman shall overtaken the reaper and the treader of grapes him that sows seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine and the hills shall melt." Mrs. Maddock and Miss Bennett will sing a duet. In the evening the subject will be worthy of the best thought in the city. The theme will be, "A stranger seen a vast city and not a man in it." There will be a thirty minute sacred song service including and anthem by the choir and a solo by Mr. Johnson; also by Mr. Maddock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

"A Romance of Coon Hollow" which will be seen at Fisher's opera house next Wednesday evening, has some of the most exquisite scenery on the road. The first act reveals an autumn view on a typical southern plantation, with sunset and moonlight effects, flickering fire-flies, a splendid electrical display. The second act is a face-simile of "Coon Hollow," a rugged glen in the Tennessee hills, painted from sketches made on the spot, and is made sensational by a strong and thrilling climax. The third act shows a good landing on the Mississippi, and night view of the famous Lee-Natches steamboat race, the boats being lighted up and under full head of steam. The last act is given to an actual cotton press in operation, and is thrillingly dramatic. The play will be given here with all the effects used in the original run at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, New York. In the wood-landing scene is introduced a rollicking melange of songs and dances by a troupe of colored boys and girls, which is the best of the kind before the public. The play is now completing its sixth successful season on the road, and this is certainly a strong guarantee of merit.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

FOOTBALL TODAY.

An Interesting Game Under the College Rules.

The Portland high school football team accompanied by a number of "spielers and rooters" will be down on the noon train to battle with the Astoria kickers. There will be more than a hundred Portlanders down to see the game.

The Astoria team had its final practice yesterday and Captain Crosby was delighted with the showing his players made. They are quick and strong and will go into the game with a feeling of confidence.

Both teams will average about 160 pounds. The line up of the Astoria team will be as follows:

Right End ..... CURTIS
L. Tackle ..... TALLANT
L. Guard ..... JONES
L. Guard ..... MINARD
Center ..... MOIRAN
Quarter Back ..... LIENWEBER
Right Half ..... BUFFINGTON
Full Back ..... GRAHAM
Subs ..... CROSBY
..... FUNGE and GIBARD

All but two of the players are or recently have been Astoria high school students.

The Portland team is composed of the following high school students: Roy Doble, captain; Sam Holbrook, W. R. Wilhelm, C. R. Van Kuran, "Hoot" Kerron, Roy Kirkley, Frank Smith, Carysle Windle, Alfred Trowbridge, E. C. Tidcombe, Lawrence Connell, Percy Davis, Fred Wilcox, Frank Trowbridge and George Steadman.

The game will be called promptly at 2:30 this afternoon. Of course rain will not interfere, football is a rainy weather outdoor sport.

ITS LABORS

NOW ENDED

LAST DAY OF THE INSTITUTE

Yesterday Evening's Program a Fitting Close For a Successful Convention of Teachers.

MORNING SESSION.

Yesterday the last day of the Institute found all the teachers in attendance and the days proceedings were as interesting and instructive as any that had already been held.

President Campbell, of the State Normal school, and State Superintendent Ackerman were the speakers of the day and addressed the teachers both morning and afternoon.

In the morning, President Campbell spoke on the "Advancement in Literature." The speaker treated the subject with breadth of thought and lucid expression.

During the intermission between President Campbell's and Superintendent Ackerman's addresses Miss Holden entertained the assembly with a brilliant selection on the piano.

Prof. Ackerman began: "If a teacher counted his wealth by dollars and cents he would be poor indeed. This morning in the warm welcome given to President Campbell by old pupils, true riches were shown. Influence is ever going out but never ending."

As in his former addresses the superintendent's remarks related to and expanded the course of study. Geography was the theme and he began telling how to assign the lessons and the material to be used. "There is work lying all around us, but we do not utilize it."

The value of map drawing was exemplified with strong illustrations. "Never teach a geographical fact unless you can give something interesting about it."

The teachers received many valuable hints and suggestions all of which were pertinent and ever to the point.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was introduced with a chorus by Miss Holden's pupils. They favored the assembly with an encore in recognition of the hearty applause that greeted their first effort.

Superintendent Ackerman addressed the convention on "How to Teach History," but preceded his address with a happy little discourse on boys and the treatment accorded them as contrasted to that accorded girls suggested by the sight of the juveniles in their chorus work. He concluded this little speech by saying, "Boys are not all bad, and the worst one will be the most loyal to you if you reach him right, and it is your business to reach him right."

His address on "History" was then taken up and was discussed in pretty much the same manner as he had previously treated geography.

President Campbell was heard in an "Advisory Talk to Teachers." He gave many suggestions as to material to use, works to peruse, and different text books to have on hand. He said: "Teaching is the noblest of arts but the poorest handicraft. Dignify your work. As we teach so we build ourselves. The sculptor when he carves his marble with every stroke of his chisel carves himself. So with us—as we put in our work the best that is in us so we lift ourselves up higher."

After an intermission Mrs. J. E. Gratie, by special request from Superintendent Ackerman gave an interesting talk in regard to the "Color Scheme of Music," giving the teachers information and addresses of those who have brought this "scheme" into prominence. An interesting feature of this session was the query box opened and answered by Superintendent Ackerman.

Much interest was indicated by those queries which were most helpfully answered by the superintendent who complimented the teachers on the queries submitted. He then closed with an enthusiastic and rousing talk.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Gratie for her kind help and also to Superintendent Ackerman, President Campbell, Dr. Whitaker, Prof. Payne, and J. T. Lee, for their untiring efforts put forth in making the institute the success it has proven to be.

In the evening at the M. E. church President Campbell closed the institute with a brilliant address on the subject "Are We Being Overeducated?"

"There were times when education was not conducted upon the right plans. Improvements have gone to extremes with the result of inaction and retrogression. New England led in education but experienced such a reaction. Then Horace Mann came forward and said the only salvation lay in the common school. These reached to the west with the difference that there they were free from prejudice and in the end became superior to those of the east. When more apparatus and books were needed the reaction began and the question arose as to general education."

"Manual work should be put in grammar grades. It would emphasize the dignity of labor."

"More complicated social life will soon follow present conditions. We will need more enlightened and more effective work."

Much credit is due Superintendent Lee for the progressive disposition which brought together eminent instructors and for the provision of registration blanks and other thoughtful plans for the convenience of the teachers.

NOTICE.

Revs. LeLachur and Funk of the Christian and Missionary Alliance will hold meetings in the Baptist church on the 13th and 14th as follows: Monday at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., Tuesday at 10 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

A failure establishes only this, that our determination to succeed was not strong enough.

RUSSIA'S POWER.

The recent peace conference brings the power of the Czar of Russia forcibly to mind. His subjects look to him for food, shelter, raiment, even life itself. In no country is a monarch's power more absolute. But far-reaching as its influence is it cannot be compared to that which the human stomach has over the morals and health of the average mortal. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters cures constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and all diseases arising from an inactive liver or weak kidneys. Try it if you have stomach trouble of any sort, and see for yourself. It will bring you back to health and happiness. It will make you strong by making your stomach strong. A private Revenue Stamp should cover the neck of the bottle.
